Reg:- Access of Balance Outstanding on the web site of the Corporation by the borrowers

The Corporation has been updating the balance position of the Loan Accounts of the borrowers regularly on the web site of the Corporation. The address of the website is rfconline.org.

For the sake of convenience of the borrowers to have access of loan outstanding position of their loan account(s), the GL Code has been made as User ID and the account number i.e. SL Code has been made as the password of every account. The software has also been got modified from Rajcomp. Accordingly, now only GLCD and SLCD are to be informed to every loanee so that the account status may be viewed by them, on the website.

Accordingly, all Branch Managers are advised to inform the borrowers their user ID and Password i.e. GLCD and SLCD respectively to the borrowers to have access to the outstanding balance position of their loan account(s). A specimen copy of the letter to be issued to the borrowers is enclosed herewith. The information is to be provided to the borrowers within 15 days positively. A confirmation in this regard should be sent to the undersigned by 07.02.2010. It is also to be ensured that as soon as a new account appears in our books of account, a letter in the proforma should be sent to the concerned borrowers immediately.
